
BIDVEST BANK LIMITED
CONFLICT OF INTEREST MANAGEMENT POLICY
(Updated January 2019)

1. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This policy is designed to assist staff in identifying situations that could present potential conflicts of interest, how to avoid such conflicts, as well as comply with the compliance requirements set out in the Companies Act and the Regulations of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act.

The Bank makes every effort to eliminate any activities and services which may constitute or develop into a conflict of interest.

The Bank expects its employees to perform their duties conscientiously, honestly and in accordance with the best interest of the Bank and its customers.

Employees must not use their position, or knowledge gained through their employment with the Bank, for personal or private advantage, or in such a manner that a conflict, or appearance of a conflict, arises between the Bank's or Customer's interests and the employees' personal interests.

2. INTRODUCTION

In terms of the General Code of Conduct for Authorised Financial Services Providers and their Responsible persons of 2003 ('the code'), as amended, the provider and its responsible persons must:

- 2.1 avoid and, where this is not possible, mitigate any conflict of interest between the provider and a client or the responsible person and a client;
- 2.2 prepare and adopt a conflict of interest management policy in terms of which conflicts of interests between the provider and a client or the responsible person and a client will be managed;
- 2.3 at the earliest reasonable opportunity inform a client in writing of the Conflict of Interest Management Policy ('this policy') and how it may be accessed;
- 2.4 at the earliest reasonable opportunity disclose to a client in writing any conflict of interest in respect of that client;
- 2.5 at the earliest reasonable opportunity disclose to a client in writing the measures taken in accordance with this policy to avoid or mitigate the conflict;
- 2.6 at the earliest reasonable opportunity disclose to a client in writing any ownership interest or financial interest, other than an immaterial financial interest, that the provider or responsible person may be or become eligible for; and
- 2.7 at the earliest reasonable opportunity disclose to a client in writing the nature of any relationship or arrangement with a third party that gives rise to a conflict of interest, in sufficient detail to enable the client to understand the exact nature of the relationship or arrangement and the conflict of interest.

Bidvest bank adopts this policy to manage conflicts of interests between the provider and a client or the responsible person and a client as required by the code.

This includes all services providers who have service level agreements with the provider to render services to clients on behalf of the provider.

4. AREAS IN WHICH A CONFLICT OF INTEREST MAY ARISE

A conflict of interest will arise where the provider or a responsible person has an actual or potential interest in another financial service provider that may, in rendering a financial service to a client, influence the objective performance of his or its obligations to that client or prevent the provider or the responsible person concerned from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interest of that client.

A conflict of interest will arise where the provider or a responsible person recommends to a client a financial service from a third party from whom the provider or the responsible person making the recommendation has received or receives cash, a cash equivalent, a voucher, a gift, a service, an advantage, a benefit, discount, domestic or foreign travel, hospitality, accommodation, sponsorship or other incentive or valuable consideration other than that permissible in terms of this policy.

A conflict of interest will arise where the provider or a responsible person recommends to a client a financial product from a product supplier in which the provider or the responsible person that makes the recommendation owns equity or proprietary interest for which fair value was paid at the time of acquisition. The equity or proprietary interest includes dividends, profit share or similar benefit derived from that equity or proprietary interest.

A conflict of interest will arise where the provider or its responsible person renders a financial service to a client that involves another product supplier, a provider or their respective associates, or a distribution channel from whom the provider or the responsible person receives a financial interest other than that permissible in terms of this policy.

Common types of transactions where a conflict of interest may arise include, for example, the selection and use of consultants or other professional advisors, the selection or supervision of contractors, suppliers, or vendors, the sale of products, the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment, the investment and borrowing of funds and an interest in a business unrelated to the business of the provider

For purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create conflicts of interest:

4.1 OUTSIDE INTERESTS

4.1.1 A contract or transaction between the provider and a responsible person or /family member of the responsible person.

4.1.2 A contract or transaction between the provider and an entity in which a responsible person or family member has a material financial interest or of which such person is a director, officer, agent, partner, associate, trustee, personal responsible person, receiver, guardian, custodian, conservator or other legal responsible person.

4.2 OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

4.2.1 A Responsible person competing with the provider in the rendering of services or in any other contract or transaction with a third party.

4.2.2 A responsible person having a material financial interest in or serving as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, associate, trustee, personal responsible person, receiver, guardian, custodian, conservator or other legal responsible person of, or consultant to an entity or individual that competes with the provider in the provision of services or in any other contract or transaction with a third party.

4.3 GIFTS, GRATUITIES AND ENTERTAINMENT

4.3.1 A responsible person or a family member may not accept from a third party any gift to the value of more than R1000 or any other similar benefit where the gift or benefit results out of the course of the responsible person's duties towards or relationship with the provider.

4.3.2 Gifts of cash or cash equivalents from a third party to a responsible person of any amount are not permitted.

4.3.3 If a responsible person is offered any cash or gift to the value of more than R1000 or similar benefit from a third party, he/she should immediately report it to his/her direct supervisor or the CEO or the compliance officer for approval following the line of protocol applicable to him/her.

4.3.4 The giving or receipt of common courtesies, occasional meals or reasonable entertainment appropriate to the business relationship and associated with business discussions are regarded as consistent with sound business practice. Unusual items (e.g.: overseas trips, holidays etc), however, must be reviewed and approved in advance by the Risk Committee of the provider.

4.3.5 A responsible person may not accept gifts, entertainment or other favours from any individual or entity that: does or is seeking to do business with, or is a competitor of the provider; or

4.3.6 has received, is receiving or is seeking to receive a loan or grant, or to secure other financial commitments from the provider; under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the responsible person in the performance of his/her duties.

4.3.7 Acceptable gifts and entertainment generally fall into the following categories:

- Occasional meals of reasonable expense with a business partner
- Ordinary sports, theatre and other cultural events of a nominal value
- Other gifts of nominal value or reasonable entertainment.
 - An offer, gift, entertainment or anything of value may not be accepted or given if it is:
 - Illegal or would result in a violation of law
 - Cash or a cash equivalent (such as gift certificates, loans, stock, or stock options)

- A 'quid pro quo' or part of an agreement requiring anything in return for the gift
- Gifts, gratuities or entertainment to government officials may never be offered or provided without prior written approval of the Board of Directors.

5. PERSONS TO WHOM THIS POLICY APPLIES

This policy applies to:

- 5.1 directors and officers of the provider, whether acting individually or collectively;
- 5.2 employees who are key individuals as envisaged in FAIS;
- 5.3 employees who are responsible persons as envisaged in FAIS;
- 5.4 all employees of the provider; and
- 5.5 any person or group of persons who can influence the activities of the provider

The Policy is further applicable to any of the following entities or individuals within Bidvest Bank Limited:

- A product supplier;
- Any other business unit, Division, legal entity who may be regarded as a "third party" as defined in Board Notice 58 of 2010;
- Any employee of any of the entities mentioned above, who may, on behalf of the entity; approve and/or accept the giving or receipt of any financial interest to/from any Third Party;
- Any representative of any FSP listed above, who is mandated to provide FAIS Act financial services;
- Any key individual who has been approved by the Registrar of Financial Services to manage and oversee compliance of a FSP with the requirements of the FAIS Act.

6. MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST

6.1 PRINCIPLES

6.1.1 The provider or a responsible person must avoid a conflict of interest.

6.1.2 Where it is not possible to avoid the conflict of interest, a financial service may still be rendered to a client, provided that the following requirements are met:

- the chief financial officer and compliance officer of the provider have been informed, within three days or as soon as is reasonably possible, of the conflict and they have signed off within five days or as soon as is reasonably possible;
- the client is informed in writing immediately before a transaction is concluded, or if not possible, soon thereafter, of the conflict of interest in sufficient detail to enable the client to understand the exact nature of the conflict of interest and make an informed decision;
- the client is informed of the existence of this policy and how the client can access it free of charge;
- the client is informed in writing of the measures the provider or the responsible person will take in terms of the policy to mitigate the conflict; and
- the client is advised of his/her legal options.

6.2 PERMISSIBLE FINANCIAL INTEREST

6.2.1 Fees or remuneration for the rendering of a service from/to a third party, which fees or remuneration is reasonably commensurate with the service being rendered.

6.2.2 The provider or a responsible person is entitled to receive, subject to any other law and the provisions of this policy, an immaterial financial interest as defined in section 2 above.

6.2.3 The provider or a responsible person is entitled to receive a financial interest not referred to above, for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate with the value of the financial interest, is paid by the provider or the responsible person at the time of receipt thereof.

6.3 IMPERMISSIBLE FINANCIAL INTEREST

6.3.1 The provider may not offer any financial interest to its responsible persons for giving preference to the quantity of business secured for it to the exclusion of the quality of the service rendered to clients.

6.3.2 The provider may not offer any financial interest to its responsible persons for giving preference to a specific provider or third party, where the responsible person may recommend more than one provider or third party to a client.

6.4 IMMATERIAL FINANCIAL INTEREST

6.4.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of this policy, the provider and any of its responsible persons may receive from or give to any third party a financial interest not included above with a determinable monetary value, the aggregate of which interest does not exceed R1 000 in any calendar year from or to the same third party. In the case of such interest being received, it may be received by:

- a responsible person for that responsible person's direct benefit; or
- the provider for its benefit.
- every employee of the provider or responsible person receiving or offering an immaterial financial interest must capture every such immaterial interest received or given on the gifts register and ensure that the limit set in this policy is not exceeded in any calendar year.

6.4.2 The compliance officer will, on a regular basis, monitor the gift register to ensure compliance with this policy.

6.4.3 The responsible person and/or an employee bear the responsibility to ensure that he/she does not exceed the limit set in this policy in any calendar year. The compliance officer shall monitor the gifts register on a regular basis.

6.4.4 The key individuals and management of the provider have the responsibility to identify/detect non-compliance with this policy. Any such identified non-compliance must be reported to the compliance officer with immediate effect (not later than two days from the date of identification).

6.5 TRAINING

6.5.1 The compliance officer of the provider is responsible for providing training with regard to this policy.

6.5.2 The compliance officer will also use compliance alerts to create awareness among responsible persons and all other employees about this policy.

7. LIST OF ASSOCIATES

In terms of the policy a list of all the associates of the provider can be made available. An associate, in relation to the provider, that is a company means any subsidiary or holding company of the provider, any other subsidiary of that holding company and any other company of which that holding company is a subsidiary.

8. LIST OF ENTITIES IN WHICH THE PROVIDER HAS AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST

8.1 In terms of the policy a list of all entities in which the provider has an ownership interest in can be obtained from the Company Secretary. An ownership interest means any equity or proprietary interest for which fair value was paid by the provider at the time of acquisition and includes any dividend, profit share or similar benefit derived from that equity of ownership interest.

9. LIST OF ENTITIES THAT HAVE AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST IN THE PROVIDER

9.1 In terms of the policy a list of all entities that hold an ownership interest in the provider can be obtained from the Company Secretary. An ownership interest means any equity or proprietary interest for which fair value was paid by that entity at the time of acquisition and includes any dividend, profit share or similar benefit derived from that equity of ownership interest.

10. MONITORING AND COMPLIANCE

10.1 The compliance officer of the provider must ensure that all responsible persons and other employees are provided with appropriate training on and educational material relating to the contents of this policy.

10.2 This policy will be in the custody of the provider's compliance officer and must be accessible, at no charge, to clients and available for public inspection at all reasonable times. The FAIS disclosure document to clients will provide the telephone number and email address for the Compliance and Complaints Department.

10.3 The compliance officer must perform regular monitoring regarding compliance with this policy. The monitoring will cover the Gifts Register and interviewing of responsible persons and employees who received immaterial financial interests.

10.4 The compliance officer of the provider will report annually to the regulatory committee on the implementation, monitoring, compliance and any contraventions in respect of this policy.

10.5 The compliance officer of the provider must ensure that the report on the level of compliance with this policy is included in the annual compliance reports sent to the Financial Services Board.

11. CONTRAVENTION OF THIS POLICY

Every employee of the provider is required to know, understand and comply with the standards outlined in this policy. Non-compliance with this policy and the procedures may be considered to be misconduct, and employees who do not comply with these, may be subject to disciplinary action that could lead to dismissal. Any act which circumvents, avoids or limits this policy will be regarded as non-compliance with the policy.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each responsible person shall exercise care not to disclose confidential information acquired in connection with such status or information, the disclosure of which might be adverse to the interests of the provider. Furthermore, a responsible person shall not disclose or use information relating to the business of the provider for the personal profit or advantage of the responsible person or a family member.

13. ANNUAL DISCLOSURE

13.1 Each responsible person shall at least annually, or as determined by the provider, and as and when changes occur, complete a declaration form (as issued and amended by the provider from time to time) identifying any relationships, positions or circumstances in which the responsible person is involved that he/she believes could contribute to or result in a conflict of interest.

13.2 Such relationships, positions or circumstances might include service as a director of or consultant to an outside company, ownership of a business that might provide goods or services to the provider or an interest in an unrelated business that does not necessarily transact business with the provider.

13.3 Any such information regarding the business interests of a responsible person or a family member shall be treated as confidential and shall generally be made available only to the chair, the Chief Executive Officer, and any committee appointed to address conflicts of interest, except to the extent that additional disclosure is necessary in connection with the implementation of this policy.

14. REVIEW OF POLICY

14.1 This policy shall be reviewed at least annually.

14.2 Any changes to the policy shall be communicated immediately to all responsible persons.

Approved by the Executive Committee on 10 May 2019.
